

THE POST.

WILL BE PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY.

At Lebanon, Ky., By
W. W. Jack.

TERMS:—The Post will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates:

One year, in advance, $2 00
If paid within six months, 2 50
At the end of the year, 3 00

Poet's Corner.

For the Lebanon Post.

THOUGHTS,

SUGGESTED BY A SOLITARY RAMBLE THROUGH A MOON-LIT GROVE, AND ADDRESSED TO—

"Tis night—and all nature is sunken to rest.
The sun has gone down on his car in the west;
Though long he had lingered, in haloes of fire, as
He play'd round the summit of Liberties's spire;
Or wave in the soft fleecy clouds as they flew,
But curtains of light have now fallen around.
And nature's at rest, in her slumbers profound;
The moon in her glory is gliding along,
On the brow of the night—midst a bright starry throng;
While seem as if Angels, there stationed above,
To watch o'er the earth in their labor of love,
Through forests I wander at this quiet hour,
And gaze upon nature's own beautiful bower;"
Where soft mellow light from the moon in the sky,
Falls gently around—and the breeze with a sigh;
Of softest like music goes murmuring through,
The boughs that seem turned by the sparkling dew.
The stars are reflected in glory serene,
From the calm silver face of the beautiful stream;
"Thus wod'd by the zephyrs, and kissed by the gale,
Oul who would not sigh for a home in the vale?"
But beauties of nature are rendered more bright,
By friends who partake in the holy delight;
For friendship in man, like the light in the sun,
Is part of his nature that lives not alone;
Dissevered from others he sighs for the morrow,
Cut off from his friends—how darkens his sorrow;
But dearer than all the kin friends of our life,
Is a bosom companion—a fond loving wife;
"Tis a friend I address by these lines that I've pen'd,
But who can describe what means by a friend;
The Orator's lost in attempts to define,
True friendship by rule, or, to measure by line;
The sculpture would fail though possessed of his grace,
To the life a true image of friendship to trace;
The Poet, in fancy may seek to define,
(His pencil all radiate with colors divine.)
The friendship that reigns uncontrolled in the heart
Unbounded by time, unaffected by art;
Coutures may dissemble it's name as they do,
And proffer their fiction for that which is true;
And coxcombs may seem as possessed of his grace,
By a cunning devise and snare of the face;
But actions like these can never impart,
The seal that true friendship sets on the heart,
Come then and accept of these lines as a token
Of my memory unbound, my friendship unbroken;
For let dire oblivion no longer entomb;
A friend in the darkness of chaos and gloom;
But run o'er the past with searching and care,
And save from its ruins one remnant to spare;
My memory, the remnant—safely lodged may it rest,
Engraved on thy heart, and embossed in thy breast;
There sweet in its tomb of mortality lies,
Would it rest undisturbed by a sigh or a care.
Its tomb-stone, thy memory, not sculptured by hand,
Shall outlast the proudest monuments that stand;
When they all have yielded to change or decay;
It, bright and unmarred, shall stand to day;
With impressions as clear and legible still,
As the golden tinged rays that tip the green land,
Like Beities self—celestial in bri,
Shall stand through the changes and burnings of earth.
BRIDGEPORT, Sept. 9th, 1852. AMIUS.

Select Tales.

From the Pictorial Drawing-Room Companion.

THE FORGED NOTE; OR, THE SCHEMING MOTHER'S MISTAKE.

BY SYLVANUS COBB, JR.

(Concluded.)

"Mr. Folt," said Mr. Walpart, turning to that gentleman, "is not that the morning on which yourself and Mr. Babrook went to Batavia?"

"It is," returned Mr. Folt; "and I drew out the eight thousand to use in buying up flour."

"Now, Mr. Russel," continued Mr. Walpart, addressing the young salesman who had accompanied Folt & Babrook, "do you remember if Mr. Albee left the store that forenoon after his employers had gone?"

"Not until after two o'clock sir," returned the young man, with a confident air, "for I remember that he sent his assistant clerk to deposit and pay two notes at the bank, because both our employers had gone, and there was considerable business going on."

"Now, gentlemen," said Mr. Walpart, rubbing his hands with considerable satisfaction, "you see how easy it is for men to be mistaken. The bank teller knew that he paid thirteen thousand dollars on the fifteenth to the checks of Folt & Babrook, and they knew that they only drew checks for eight thousand. He also knew that he paid money to James Albee, and those two circumstances, both put together, look convincing; but you now see that when thoroughly sifted out, they amount to nothing, for you see that it is impossible that the young man could have drawn the money, even though he had forged the check, and that he did this of course there is no evidence now that the other is uprooted."

A moment Mr. Folt stood in deep thought, with his hand upon his knit brow and his elbow resting upon the desk. Then while his countenance opened to a kind, frank look, he stepped quickly forward and seizing the hand of the suspecting he said:

"James, I know that you are not guilty of this crime. I have suspected you, for I had grounds; but, what Mr. Walpart has thought, added to your whole exemplary life, gives back to you your untarnished honor."

In vain was it that the youth attempted to utter his just words. His heart beat

THE LEBANON POST.

THE PRESS—THE SHIELD OF THE UNION—THE DEFENDER OF EQUAL RIGHTS.

VOL. 1,

LEBANON, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEM. 15, 1852.

NO. 20.

Terms of Advertising.

For 12 lines or less, 1st insertion,	75
For each subsequent insertion,	25
For half column 6 months,	14
" 12 months,	18
For whole column 6 months,	18
" 12 months,	25

A liberal deduction made for yearly advertisements. When the number of time for continuing an advertisement is not specified, it will be continued until ordered out and charged accordingly.

"Not my hair," cries Eugenio of the flowing locks. "Take my life, but spare the capillary substance on the summit of my cranium."

Vain, vain, vain! He is dragged away with a broken heart, and the tails of his Sunday coat torn off.

(To be continued.)

Learning the Currency.

Of all the close dealers among us, the Dutchmen live on the least, and shave the closest. It is astonishing how soon they learn our currency. A good thing occurred, however, a few days since, with the keeper of a small "Lager Bier" saloon, in this neighborhood, who undertook to teach his assistant a thick-headed sprout of "Faderland," the difference between "five pence" and "sixpence."

"You see, John, de piece mit de vomans ish de five-pence, and de piece mit de vomans, is de six-pence."

"Yah!" said John, with a dull twinkle of intelligence.

A wag of a loafer, who overheard the lecture, immediately conceived the idea of a "saw" and "Lager Bier" gratis, for that day at least. Procuring a three cent piece, he watched the departure of the "boss" and going up to John he called for a mug of "bier" throwing down the coin and looking as if he expected his change. John, who remembered his recent lesson, took up the piece and muttered to himself:

"Mitout de vomans-tish von six-pence," he handed him over three coppers change.

How often the aforesaid was drunk that day, we know not, it depends upon his thirst and the number of times he could exchange three coppers for three cent pieces; but when the "boss" came home at night, the number of small coin astonished him.

"Vat ish dese, John; you take so many?"

"Six-pence," replied John, with a peculiar satisfied leer.

"Sixpence! Dunder and blitzen? You take all dese for six-pence?" "Whofrom?"

"De man mit peurd like bosshut; he drink all day mit himself."

"Der teufel! You give him change every time?"

"Yat-ah!" said John with a stare.

"Der teufel catch de Yankees," was all the astonished Dutchman could say.

N. Y. Atlas.

CHOICE OF A PROFESSION.—Old gentleman.—Now, Augustus, you have had all the advantages of a good education. You have been well brought up, and as I believe you to be a well disposed boy, I should wish you to choose your own profession. Come, what would you like to be?

Augustus.—I know what I should like, but you wouldn't let me.

Old Gent.—What is it—a lawyer?

Aug.—No, it ain't a lawyer.

Old Gent.—A doctor or a surgeon?

Aug.—No.

Old Gent.—A clergyman?

Aug.—No.

Old Gent.—A soldier?

Aug.—No.

Old Gent.—What then?

Aug.—Why—a clown at the circus.

Advice to the Girls.

Dr. Beeswax, in a most admirable "Essay on Domestic Economy," talks to the young ladies after this fashion:

Girls do you want good husbands?

If so, cease to act like fools.

Don't take pride in saying you never did house work—never cooked a pair of chickens—never made a bed, and so on.

Don't turn up your pretty noses at honest industry—never tell your friend that you are not obliged to work. When you go shopping never take your mother with you to carry the bundle. Don't be afraid to be seen in the kitchen, cooking a steak, or over a wash tub cleaning the family duds.

A man named Kit Shannon, who was hanged for murder in California, last month, when standing on the drop awaiting the executioners will, and when the rope was adjusted around his neck, gave first a lusty shout, then hallooed "Good-bye, boys," and with this light heartedness sprung off into mysterious eternity.

What deep sound strikes like a rising knell? It is—the dying horse's yell!

A lumber-laden sloop has struck the horse-boat, and it sinks.

Eugenio and his betrothed save themselves on a hen-coop, having nothing wherewith to support life but a sun-shade and a flute.

In the mean time, Aldiber, the father of our heroine, fits out a vessel (at Troy) and follows the fugitives.

At day-break he discovers them. Beatrice is tenderly holding her sun-shade over Eugenio's listless head, while he, to soothe her melancholy, plays "Stop dat Knocking," on his flute. He (Aldiber) bears down upon him and snatches Beatrice from his side.

"Ha, ha!" laughed Eugenio de Oysterlo, as he snatched her sunshade, and endeavored to cut his ear from throat to throat with his large toe nail. "He is thwarted!"

"Hence with him to the coal-cellars," cries the cruel tyrant, "and there shave his head."

Patent Hat.

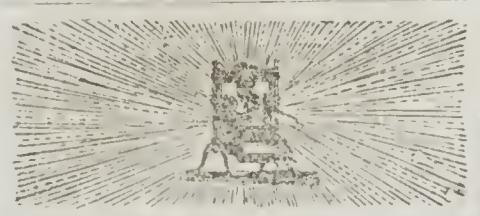

Mr. Benj. Sherwood, of New York, has obtained a patent for a hat, to which is attached a ring, or part of a ring, inside to fit upon the head and leave a space around it for the purpose of producing ventilation.

A MAHOMEDAN'S IDEA OF A CHRISTIAN MERCHANT.—Some years ago a Philadelphia merchant sent a cargo of goods to Constantinople. After the supercargo saw the bales and boxes safely landed, he inquired where they could be stored? "Leave them here; it won't rain to-night," was the reply.

"But I dare not leave them thus exposed; some of the goods might be stolen," said the supercargo.

The Mahomedan merchant burst into a loud laugh, as he replied: "Don't be alarmed; there ain't a Christian within fifty miles of here."

THE POST,

LOCAL ITEMS.

THE POST We are pleased to see our Marshall, Mr. Wm. H. DUNCA, cleansing up our streets. All of those odious salt barrels have been removed from main street, wood-piles and other unseemly objects have disappeared; the gutters are cleaned, &c. Long may Mr. D. do his duty.

LEBANON, KY.
Wednesday Morning, Sept. 15, 1852.

Remember;

That from and after the 30th of Sept. that the Lebanon Post can be sent to any post office in this county free of postage; and to any post office in the State at the law rate of 3½ cents per quarter, or 13 cents the year. Now who will not subscribe to their own paper?

Come up and subscribe for the Post, and get your friends and neighbors to subscribe. We have not near got a living list yet. Remember, also, that we propose to send it to clubs of 10 for $15, or $1 50 to each subscriber; or to clubs of 20 for $25, or $1 25, to each subscriber. Clubs must be paid for in advance. We make no boasts about our paper, but we are willing to let it sink or swim on its own merits or demerits. If you do not like our paper do not take it, but do not say: "I like the paper very well, and would be very glad to see it continue," and then turn right around and borrow your neighbor's paper.

We have discovered a vast amount of indigent poverty, since our sojourn in this county; men who no one would suspect of being "hard run;" who, in fact are reputed wealthy; and yet, astonishing to relate, they are not able to take their own paper! We would go in to levy a penny tax to support such men.

In another column will be seen the advertisement of the Swiss Bell Ringers. We extract the following notice of them from the Louisville Democrat:

Notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of the weather, the Bell Ringers were greeted with another large audience last night, and their performances, as usual, elicited the highest applause. Tonight they give their last entertainment, and those who fail to hear them, will surely miss a treat. The performance on the wood and straw instrument is alone worth the price of admission. Go, everybody, and hear the enchanting notes of the bells, and our word for it you will not regret the visit.

We can endorse the above, having heard them in Cincinnati, in the Spring of '51. The highest encomium we could pass upon their performance, is by stating that the editor of the Louisville Varieties pronounces them humbugs.

In another column will be seen the advertisement of the Hartford, Connecticut Insurance Company. All persons are not aware of the advantages which actually exist in an insurance of their property, if they were, there would be more policies issued by friend SNACKLEFORD, in this county. The winter is approaching, when there will be more danger from fire than now. Insure your property, it takes but a small per cent, and then if it burns up you may not stand with a troubled countenance over the smouldering ruin, and vainly wish that you had insured.

We owe our readers an apology, for the number of murders and encounters which we publish, for it is in opposition to our taste. But the fact is, there is nothing else in the shape of news but of this kind. Our exchanges are filled up with murders and political articles. The world seems retrograding, very fast, towards demi-barbarism. So far from the long and anxiously-looked-for Millennium, being at hand, it seems as is the much-dreaded thousand years that precedes it, is with us; for the "old gentleman" seems at liberty and stalks untrammeled thro' the land.

The editor of the Louisville Varieties, after playing his usual cute trick, of curtailing our article of last week, of its "fair proportions," lets out some very cute-aneous eruptions upon the soporific effects of our articles upon himself. We, together with the readers of the Post, have been laboring under a mistake, upon this point. Instead of putting you to sleep, we had thought that the Post had "waked you up," when you ran against it, whilst "perigrinating promiscuously thro' space." Either you must have got used to "fetching up" against posts, whilst in an oblivious state, or you enjoy the lasting repose of Rip Vanwinkle. If he is such a hard case in his sleeping moments, heaven protect the world when he wakes. If our paper were good for nothing else but to keep such cattle as you, friend Walsh, asleep, it ought to be supported by government.

Hon. Jas. W. Stone has arrived from the land of health.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Reported for the Louisville Courier.

ARRIVAL OF THE EUROPA.

LATER FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE
New York, Sept. 10.

The Europa arrived to-day.

Cotton since the Arctic's departure has improved in enquiry, which was firmly met without any disposition to press sales; prices are unchanged since Friday. Sales of cotton for three days up to Friday night were 28,000. Speculators took 7,000; exporters 3,000. Sales on Wednesday of 10,000, and Friday 10,000. The import for the week are 24,000.

The Europa brings 117 passengers.

The passed the City of Manchester on the 8th, and Niagara, near Liverpool, on the 30th. The general news is destitute of interest. The London Times favors the withdrawal of the grants to the Cunard and Collins lines and then open the championship of the Atlantic to free competition.

Webster's letter on the subject of the Lobos Islands excited unfavorable comments. The Islands were surveyed for the King of Spain in 1731, as laid down in the map published at Madrid in 1748.

Agricultural reports from Scotland are highly favorable, also those of England.

The progress of the potatoe disease in Ireland had been stayed.

FRANCE.—Gen. Magean announces to the General Council that the President contemplates establishing a strong military reserve, which, without compromising respect and dignity, would secure quiet to the country.

Another anti-rent outrage was committed on Saturday night, at Berlin, Van Rensselaer Co.

A party disguised as Indians, went to the house of Mr. Shaw, and endeavored to force him to come outside, but he refusing, they then set fire to the house, when Shaw fired upon them with a revolver, and killed one Joseph Wilcock, and wounded two others. Last fall Shaw was tarred and feathered, and about three weeks ago his out houses were burned.

The LEAHY MURDER.—From the Oshkosh (Wis.) Courier, we take the following account of the murder committed by the notorious LEAHY:

"By some gentleman from Fort Winnebago, we have the particulars of one of the most shocking tragedies, which has ever taken place in Wisconsin. The author of this murder, most of our readers know. It is LEAHY, the so-called monk of Latrappé, who has lectured throughout the Union on Catholicity, and made himself the ridicule of every right thinking man. The particulars are as follows:

Leahy has been living with his wife in Marecille, Columbia county, and has property to the amount of $4,000. He has lately been absent; on his return discovered that his wife had been false to him, and suspected a man by the name of Manley, as being the paramour of the wife. Manley had been tried twice for the crime, and on Thursday last, at Parderville, village five miles from Fort Winnebago, he was again on trial. The court acquitted him again, when Leahy instantly drew his revolver, and shot Manley dead—the ball entering his kidneys and passing through his body. Manley's blood was not enough to satisfy such a villain, and he immediately fired upon Col. Morton, Manley's lawyer, the ball hitting the law-book under his arm, and thus saving his life. He fired a second time at Morton, when a by-stander wrested the pistol from him, which providentially saved his life. The ball passed through the Colonel's abdomen, tearing his skin, and ripping his clothes. His escape was indeed miraculous.

Leahy was arrested and placed in confinement. Upon being asked if he wished to see Manley before being buried, he replied "no," and gave the following reason for the murder. Stretching forth his right hand, he said: "To be sure that hand fired the pistol, but God directed it. In a vision last night, God told me to kill five men in that room. I have been prevented now, but the day will come when it will be done."

There is no doubt that he intended to kill the five. Leahy is a perfect devil, has destroyed the peace of almost every city in the Union, and by his licentious lectures to bigots, has reaped a fortune out of their gullibility, which is to be spent on the gallows. We pity him and them."

The Captain of the Nelter told them he had observed the Yankee papers had stated there would be no more trouble to fishing vessels, and that he would like to know where they got their information, that he would always be found doing what he had done.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10, P. M.
There has been many cholera deaths in the past few days.

A watchman was murdered in the streets this A. M.—two men have been arrested on suspicion of the deed.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP

NORTHERN LIGHT.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7, M.

The Northern Light from San Juan, with dates to the 29th, has arrived. She brings $312,000 in gold.

Passengers came through from San Francisco in 23 days 6 hours.

The British steamer Great Britain and the Staffordshire had arrived Aug. 13.

The Panama was to leave San Francisco on the 15th of August.

A battle had been fought at Table Rock, Oregon, between the Indians and whites.

The latter had 40 killed.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 7.

A fire last night destroyed the distillery of Martin, Sollers & Co; loss in stock $8,000; insured for $3,300. Five men working in the third story of the building were severely burned; others escaped by leaping from the windows.

The Whig convention met last night and nominated Capt. Richard Francis for Mayor.

The mail from New Orleans brings dates from Texas to the 27th ult.

The news is of little or no interest.

Much excitement is reported at Matamoras owing to the usurpation of the government of Tamalipas by Jesus Cardenas. A revolution was expected.

At Rio Grande City a fight occurred between E. R. Ford & Capt. J. Everett. The latter was shot through the arm—not dangerous.

A letter dated Victoria, Aug. 4th, says: The mail-rider who came in to-day from San Patricio states that the Indians were down in that neighborhood committing depredations, and the settlers in the country were moving in for protection.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.

The Sandwich bark Sacramento arrived at Honolulu, from Panama bound for San Francisco. On the passage a boy named Woolfolk of Ky., shot one of his comrades through the heart in a trifling dispute. He was tried by Lynch law, and hung at the yard arm.

Hon. Edward McGaghay, late M. C. of Ind., died on the steamer Windfield Scott.

A duel was fought by W. H. Jones, and Jno. S. Neugent—former wounded.

A party of seceding Mormons which left Missouri two years ago with prophet Brewster, arrived recently at San Diego, in a destitute, condition.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 6.

Another anti-rent outrage was committed on Saturday night, at Berlin, Van Rensselaer Co.

A party disguised as Indians, went to the house of Mr. Shaw, and endeavored to force him to come outside, but he refusing, they then set fire to the house, when Shaw fired upon them with a revolver, and killed one Joseph Wilcock, and wounded two others. Last fall Shaw was tarred and feathered, and about three weeks ago his out houses were burned.

Mysterious.

There was no little excitement created in town, since our last issue, by different persons being shot at on the Danville road about a mile from town. The persons first shot at were two young men, each of whom, stated that they were not aware of having an enemy in the world, and the third, who was fired at on another occasion, the ball passing through the lapel of his coat, had not at the time, the least idea of whom it could be, and still the fourth, who was also a young man, says he has not an enemy to his knowledge. All the shooting was done at, or just after dark. There are various surmises in regard to it, and many are even so sceptical as to believe there was no shooting done. He was seen the first time, and clearly made out to be a white man, and at least—His maneuvers were noted as being very strange—leaping fences, dodging &c.—but the young men could not believe till the second firing, that he was shooting at them in earnest.

Surely, this is a singular country, and the laws must be very weak when there is nothing done to ferret out the perpetrator of such an act, (to be sure some few men in town took the trouble to go to the ground and see if they could not track him, but their labors were for naught) and bring him to justice. Our country is getting a name for bloodshed fast enough by these disgraceful partisan fights, without allowing men, and perfectly innocent and harmless young men too, to be made the mark for any man who takes a notion to see how close he could come to them without hitting. Do the citizens believe the statements of these young men, or do they believe the one who has the bullet hole in his coat, made it himself? If their statements are true, let the citizens take the proper steps to secure people from similar outrages. It has come to such a pass that a man is hardly safe in transacting business after night. We fully believe that the shooting was done, and we also believe it is the duty of the officers of the law to offer a reward for the apprehension of the villain who enacted it, and not to lie dead to all appeals concerning it, till some innocent man is made a victim of this or some other disregard of the laws of civilization.—Lancaster Argus.

JANE KELLY, a young Irish girl residing on Water street, attempted yesterday morning, to commit suicide by swallowing what she supposed to be laudanum. The druggist of whom she made the purchase thought her appearance excited and despondent, and consequently gave her parapetie instead of what she desired. Her intended suicide was therefore transmuted to a quiet, pleasant sleep—different from death only that it was not eternal—from which she awoke in so greatly an improved state of spirits, that what was before her wish became her aversion.—Cin. Com.

SEIOUS RENCONTRE.—On the 16th ult., the day of the election, a difficulty occurred at Athens, Dallas county, Ala., between Sion R. Shaw, one Davidson and Daniel England, in which the latter was dangerously cut. Shaw and England had been conversing about a horse race, and in the midst of the controversy Shaw became excited and gave England the lie. England at this time declined to resent it. The parties sometime afterwards met in a grocery, and Shaw renewed the subject and again repeated the offensive language, upon which England struck him two blows, the first with his fist, and the second with a light cane. Upon this, Shaw and Davidson fell upon him with their knives, giving him some two or three cuts across the arm which penetrated to the bone, and one in the left side immediately over the heart and exposing it to view. Davidson and Shaw immediately fled and have not yet been arrested. England is lying in a critical condition, but may possibly recover.

PROVISIONS.—Bacon scarce from the country, with sales from wagons at 7½@7¾ for choice Shoulders, and 10 for clear Sides. Sales of 24 casks from stores at 8¢ 40, 8¢ 45, and 8¢ 50 in lots. Wheat firm at 90¢. Corn scarce at 45¢ 50c. Oats 25¢ from first hands. Barely arriving more freely, with sales to the brewerries at 40¢ 3½ bushel.

NAILS.—The stocks are very light,

with sales of 220 kegs assorted at 3¢ for 10 d's, and 100 kegs 4 d's on private terms.

GROCERIES.—We quote a sale of 50 bags Rio Colle at the wharf at 8¢ 40.

125 bags in lots from store at 9½@9¾.

Sugar continues to meet a fair demand, with sales of 65 hds at prices ranging from 5½ to 5¾.

PROVISIONS.—Bacon scarce from the country, with sales from wagons at 7½@7¾ for choice Shoulders, and 10 for clear Sides. Sales of 24 casks from stores at 8¢ 40, 8¢ 45, and 8¢ 50 in lots. Wheat firm at 90¢. Corn scarce at 45¢ 50c. Oats 25¢ from first hands. Barely arriving more freely, with sales to the brewerries at 40¢ 3½ bushel.

NAILS.—The stocks are very light,

with sales of 220 kegs assorted at 3¢ for 10 d's, and 100 kegs 4 d's on private terms.

Bonds with good security will be required of purchasers before the property is removed, and possession given of the Tavern property immediately.

Reference as to the character of this House.

Danville—J. T. Boyle, F. T. Fox, John F. Zimmerman, Judge Bridges, James M. Nichols and A. H. Owings.

Stanford—James Wilson, John J. Huffman, and Harvey Helm.

Crab Orchard—James Hope and Dr. Reese.

Perryville—Henry Gray and J. H. Walker.

Jamesstown—N. B. Stone and W. S. Patterson.

Columbia—R. T. Coffey, Junius Caldwell, Judge Wheat and T. Cravens.

Springfield—Rich. Corrie and Robt. Simms.

Liberty—C. R. Coffey, Joel Sweeny, Mr. Bell and F. C. Whip.

H. M. WEATHERFORD.

Houstonville, July 30, '52

Somerset Gazette and Lebanon Post insert

in 12mo, and charged

August 1st, '52

H. M. W.

Gethsemane.

Lieut. Lynch, of the U. S. Exploring to the River Jordan and the Red Sea, in 1849, visited the garden of Gethsemane about the middle of May. He says:

"The clover upon the ground was in bloom, and altogether the garden, in its aspects and associations, was better calculated than any place I know to soothe a troubled spirit. Eight venerable trees, isolated from the smaller and less imposing ones which skirt the pass of the Mount of Olives, form a consecrated grove. High above, on either hand, towers a very lofty mountain, with a deep yawning chasm of Jehosaphat between them. Crowning one of them is Jerusalem, a living city: on the slope of the other is the great Jewish cemetery, a city of the dead.

Each tree in this grove, cankered and knarled, and buried by age, yet beautiful in its decay, is a living monument of

THE POST.

Wednesday Morning, Sept. 15, 1852

MR. JAMES A. O'BRIAN, is our authorized agent at Bardstown for the reception of Subscriptions, Advertisements, &c., and is also authorized to receive and receipt for all monies due us in that region.

Wanted.

We wish to get as an Apprentice to the Printing Business, an active, sprightly boy. A boy must bear a good character, and come well recommended. None other need apply.

Rags! Rags!! Rags!!!

Clean Linen and Cotton Rags wanted at this office. The highest price in CASH will be paid for any amount brought.

—Members of Congress en route for their homes, pass through Louisville almost daily.

—The Cleveland Herald says over a million of dollars will be invested in buildings in that city the present year.

—The Cincinnati Nonpariel, of last Thursday, says that several deaths from cholera morbus, have occurred in that city, during the past few days.

—We understand that the fare on the Frankfort and Louisville Railroad was reduced to half price on the days of the political meetings in the latter city.

—Mr. D. Douglass, will be in Louisville shortly, to receive contributions for the Washington Monument. The monument has reached the height of 117 feet.

—A shark, six feet long, with a monstrous full row of teeth, was caught in a smoke house last week, near Nashville. He was after bacon, and his name was John.

—President Fillmore has signed the bill to protect the Wheeling Bridge as a national post route. It will, therefore probably stand till the floods come, and longer too.

—Mark Sullivan, who murdered Mr. Jourdan in Washington county, Alabama, a few years ago, for which he was sentenced to the penitentiary, returned home a short time since, and was shot, one day last week, by a son of Jourdan, a lad twelve or fifteen years of age.

—On Monday, the 30th ult., a man named Gray was killed near Springfield, Ill., by another named Low. They had a fight, when Low stabbed Gray in the neck, killing him instantly. The homicide was arrested.

—Contracts for a large number of hogs have been made at Terre Haute at a high as $5 per hundred pounds.

—The board of directors of the Ohio and Central Railroad determined on Tuesday, to make West Wheeling the Ohio terminus of that railway.

—The large and valuable property of the Maryland Mining Co., in Alleghany county, Pa., was sold at public sale in Cumberland, on Wednesday, for the sum of $500,000. Purchaser, D. Leavitt Esq., president of the American Exchange Bank in New York.

—Major John H. Gore, of the 4th regiment United States Infantry, died of cholera at Panama, recently. He married a daughter of Gov. Morehead, of Kentucky, and leaves a youthful widow and two children to mourn his melancholy fate.

—The notorious Leahy, the pretended monk of La Trappe, who has perambulated the country during the last half dozen years, has finished his career by murdering a man named Edward J. Manly, at Pardeeville, Columbia county, Wisconsin, on Tuesday, Aug. 19th. At the same time he also shot at and wounded Esq. Morton, of the same place. The cause of the murder was jealousy of Manly and his (Leahy's) wife. The criminal was arrested and lodged in jail, to await trial on a charge of murder.

—It's a BAD WIND, ETC.—The catastrophe on board the Henry Clay, proven a fat job to the Coroner; one of those gentlemen who deal with the dead, cleared over $1000 in fees! How much the officers and owners of the Henry Clay will clear by that trip, is yet very uncertain; if they clear a free pass to Sing Sing, somebody will be to blame.—Balt. Clipper.

A Jerseyman was very sick and was not expected to recover. His friends got around his bed, and one of them said: "John do you feel willing to die?" John made an effort to give his views on the subject, and said:

"I—think—I'd rather stay—where I'm better acquainted."

—The Cincinnati Nonpariel of Tuesday says: So rapidly has the river fallen in the last few days that several of the large class boats who anticipated a trip down to New Orleans, have been compelled to lay up again.

Special Notices.

—J. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY imparts new vigor to vital action, and relieves the system by opening the pores of the skin, and promoting the secretion of mucus matter. Its action is sudorific, salutary and expectorant, by opening the pores, assuaging irritation, and by rendering the expulsion of mucus matter easy.

Those who take the Balsam will feel immediate relief from the distressing irritations that accompany affections of the respiratory organs. The pores have been closed, the Balsam opens them. The lungs suffer from irritation, the irritation is soothed; the pulse is violent and feverish, they are softened, and the mucus membrane is relieved of its engorgement with rapidity and ease. All by the use of this delightful remedy.

See advertisement.

Lebanon Division, S. of T., No. 73, Meets every Thursday night at their hall in the Court House,

Masonic Lodge,

Meets the 1st Monday night in every month at their hall in the Lebanon Hotel.

Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Meets every Monday night at their hall over L. EDELEN'S Hat Store.

PROSP. CTUS
OF
ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.

NEAR LEBANON, MARION CO., KY.

This Literary Institution, founded in 1851, by the late Rev. WILLIAM BYRNE, and subsequently conducted for many years by the Jesuits, is now under the superintendance of the Right Rev. Bishop of Louisville, who will always take means to provide a suitable Faculty for carrying it on with a view to promote the greatest public good.

Under the auspices of its previous conductors, the Institution has been instrumental in widely diffusing the blessings of a religious education throughout Kentucky and the adjoining States.—

The steadiness of its patronage has been a constant evidence of the public approval.

The beauty and salubrity of the situation, as well as the spaciousness and commodiousness of the College Buildings, are generally known.

It will be the constant aim of the Faculty to adopt, so far as practicable, the plan which it was so well and so usefully conducted by its enlightened and benevolent Founder.

TERMS PER SESSION.

[INvariably IN ADVANCE.] Board, including Washing, Mending Shirts and Socks after washing, Fuel and Lights, together with Tuition in Orthography, Reading, Writing, English Grammar, Geography and Arithmetic, $37.50

Board, &c., (as above,) with Tuition in use of Globes, Algebra, Geometry, Surveying, Book-Keeping, History, Rhetoric and Botany, or either of these branches, 42.00

Board, &c., (as above,) with Tuition in the Classics, Higher Mathematics and Philosophy, or either of them, 45.00

Tuition in French, (Extra,) 5.00

Bed and Bedding, when furnished, 3.00

Stationery, [Pens, Ink and Paper,] when furnished, 2.50

Books, Medicines and other necessary articles are furnished by the Agent of the College, at current retail prices;

For those who remain at the College during the vacations, there will be an additional charge for Board of 10.00

PROSPECTUS
OF
THE LEBANON POST

Enough has been said and wrote upon the innumerable advantages arising out of having a newspaper in a County; I will not, therefore, enlarge upon this point.

Feeling convinced that the people of Marion wish an establishment of the kind in their County, I have consented, after many solicitations, to make a trial; let us see what will be the result. I had partially made my arrangements to move upon the Ohio river, but if the people of Marion will show, by subscribing liberally for the "POST," that they want a paper, we will succumb to their wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister-States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and Select Poetry.

(From the Louisville Times.)

The Fireman's Song.

By JOHN K. HOLMES.

The lurid flames are wild and long

Ho! water boys—hurrah!

We'll quench them, for our arms are strong

We'll work—we'll work away!

Down on her now, the awful flames

Would claim the field alone!

See how the night is red with light,

How high the sparks are blown!

Ho! water boys! Here bear a hand!

The wind is rising high;

By it the hissing flame is fan'd

And rages to the sky!

Down on her men! Hurrah! hurrah!

Work hearties, do not fear,

We fight the wrath, the fire-god hath;

And shout in triumph here.

We brave the frosty mid-night air—

We toil in summer's heat!

Ho! hearties! see the ladies fair

That view us from the street!

But for our hands the widow's bane;

A smothering heap might be;

The orphan room unblest alone

And weep where none will see!

The fire's at! Ho! hearties sing!

We've won the field again!

The Flame-god by the Water-king

In this hard fight is slain!

Rejoice! rejoice, ye hardy men!

See what your arms can save!

What smiles now rise in Love's dark eyes—

The Firemen are brave!

PITTSBURGH, Pa., 1852.

A Daring Runaway.

A few days since, Mr. Core, a planter of Fayette county, was in one of his fields, some distance from his residence, when he perceived approaching him from the woods, a stout able-bodied negro man. Mr. C. awaited his approach, thinking he belonged to one of his neighbors, and had been sent on some errand. He came boldly up to Mr. C. and accosted him thus:

"Your name is Mr. Core: I am a runaway and have long wished to have a conversation with you. I do not fear being apprehended—I am well armed—(exhibiting to Mr. C. a splendid brace of pistols and a bowie knife)—but I have long wanted to see you. In the first place, I wish to pay you, as your negroes have been feeding me for several months, and I have plenty of money—(pulling out of his pocket, as he spoke, a large roll of bank notes) and I assure you, I never murdered any man to get it. I got it by robbing houses in Memphis'—(mentioning many houses here, and exhibiting to Mr. C. a large bunch of false keys.)

Mr. C. doubting the propriety of attempting to arrest him, as he was alone, concluded he would question him about two runaways who had been gone some time, and he asked the negro if he knew them, and when he had seen them. The negro promptly replied that he did know them, and volunteered to assist Mr. C. in arresting them, and told him if he would meet him alone at the same place the next day, he would carry him where he could arrest both the negroes, as they had been very troublesome and he wanted to get rid of them.

Mr. C. promised to meet him at the place and time appointed, but instead of going alone, he took with him his overseer and another young man, and secreted them, armed with double-barreled guns, in the vicinity of the place, of meeting. At the appointed time, the runaway made his appearance but instead of finding Mr. C. alone, found the two gentlemen with their guns leveled upon him. He at once surrendered, and gave up his weapons, begging them not to tie him, as he wanted to be taken, and was tied of staying out, having been in the woods near five years; that he belonged to a gentleman in Alabama; and that he would still go with them and show them the two negroes, as he had promised. They concluded to trust him, and all four proceeded in company to an old deserted cabin hard by the collar, secure between his teeth.—

To bring him ashore, back to that particular place however, was an impossibility, owing to the force of the current; so that the only hope was to make to a point of land some distance ahead (between Jersey City and Hoboken) and for that quarter Rolla steered his course, amid the applause and excitement of the spectators. On went the noble animal, bravely buffeting the tide, and careless of the shouts of applause, all the while keeping the boy's face out of water. He reached the goal at length with his precious burden, safe and sound, but a little faint and frightened; and no sooner had he laid him down than the noble animal sank exhausted on the sand. He was instantly surrounded by a numerous crowd of people, who had been eye-witnesses of the scene, vying with each other in showing kindness to the heroic animal that had thus risked his own life to save that of a helpless human being. Some idea of the labor performed by the dog is the fact that the entire distance he had to swim is said to be not less than two miles.—N. Y. Express.

BOY KILLED AND EATEN BY A BEAR.—We learn that a boy named Alden S. Rose, about 16 years of age, an orphan son of the late Sam'l. D. Rose, formerly of this city, was killed in this country last week by an enormous bear, and when found a large portion of the body of the unfortunate youth had been devoured by the savage animal. The lad had been residing with his brother, 15 miles from this place, and had been sent to a corn field for roasting ears. Not returning as soon as expected the family became uneasy about him, when the husband and wife mounted their horses and went to look for him. Arriving at the field, they found a portion of the corn considerably broken and trampled down, and while examining it an enormous bear suddenly issued from an adjoining thicket and made directly toward them, causing the woman's horse to throw her. Her husband succeeded in getting on his horse, when they escaped from the furious beast. Several of the neighbors collected the next morning and proceeded to the field, where they found the mutilated remains of the lad, partly eaten by the bear. Parties have been hunting the bear ever since the sad occurrence. We hope they may succeed in killing him, for having tasted human flesh, he may prove a dangerous animal, particularly to children, in so sparsely settled a portion of the country.

Little Rock Gaz., 134.

As a carriage containing a party of Yorkers was crossing the suspension bridge across the Niagara, during the storm on Saturday last, and when about half way over, the bridge was struck by a gust with appalling fury. The wind blew a perfect tornado, while the air was densely filled with driving hail and rain, and so potent was the wind that the bridge swayed latterly to and fro, ten or twelve feet, making one giddy with its vibrations. So appalling was the commotion that the horses stopped and finally fell upon their sides on the bridge, while the driver, in the extremity of his terror, seemed incapable of making the least effort to move from the perilous spot. The inmates of the carriage could with difficulty keep their seats, and for a short time expected nothing else but to be precipitated into the surging waters below.

"Mother, I shouldn't be surprised if our Susan gets choked some day."

"Why, my son?"

"Because her beau twisted his arms around her neck, the other night, and if she had not kissed him to let her go, he would have strangled her."

An Englishman and Frenchman were traveling by railroad. They were alone in the same car. The Frenchman, always polite, asked permission to smoke; his companion made no reply, drew a cigar from his pocket and smoked also.

At the first station: "Sir," said the Frenchman "your cravat is awry."

The Englishman very silently arranged his cravat.

A little farther: "Sir," said the Frenchman, "your cap is falling off."

The Englishman without even saying "thank you," snatched his cap.

A few moments after:

"Ah, sir," cried the Frenchman "take care; the hot ashes have fallen on your collar; they may burn your coat."

"Well, sir, let me alone," replied the Englishman, "you have been burning this half hour and I didn't bother you about it."

One of the greatest objections to wealth is, that it makes you unwilling to die. The man who has been brought up in affluence looks upon that ugly hole in the ground called a grave, with ten thousand more horrors than ever fell to the lot of that "poor devil" who sleeps about the market.

A VALUABLE BOOK

Of General Information, designed for Families and Private Libraries. Published by J. A. & U. P. JAMES, Cincinnati, O., entitled, UNIVERSAL PICTORIAL LIBRARY: Containing valuable papers on different subjects, comprising Natural History, Natural Science, Agriculture, Rural Economy, Biography, Fine Arts, The Orientals, Travels, Geography, Botany, Miscellaneous Readings, etc., etc. Illustrated with more than Five Hundred Engravings. One vol. Imp. 8vo., 640 pp., embossed cover, marble edge, Price, $3.00.

This work has already become very popular, and contains an amount and variety of scientific and literary matter not to be found in the same compass in any other work. The various topics which it comprises are treated in a clear and simple manner, adapting it to all classes of readers. The many fine Engravings, by which the different subjects are illustrated, increase its value, rendering it at the same time more useful, as well as more attractive and interesting.

Among the contents of this very interesting and instructive work will be found numerous Biographical Sketches of eminent characters, Leaves from History, descriptions of Living Costumes, Selections of Natural History, Tales of Savage and Civilized Life, Anecdotes, and a large amount of Miscellaneous matter, descriptive of wonders in Science, Nature, and Art, interesting and instructive not only to those of mature age, but readily comprehended by the junior portion of the family circle. In fine, it is a work that should find a place in every family.

N. B. ACTIVE AGENTS WANTED to circulate the above, and numerous other POPULAR WORKS, to whom such discounts will be made as will enable them to realize a handsome remuneration.

Address, J. A. & U. P. JAMES, No. 167 Walnut street between Fourth and Fifth.

MARRIAGE AND THE DUTIES OF MARRIAGE RELATIONS. In a series of Six Lectures, addressed to youth and the young in married life. By the Rev. Geo. W. QUINBY. One volume 16mo., 216 pages, bound in muslin; price 50 cents.

"This little volume, of over two hundred pages, is well calculated to lessen the trials and difficulties common to the lot of humanity, whether in the married or single state. There are rough roads and stormy days in the path of most young married people; yet with such knowledge of correct rules and principles as this volume presents, these rough roads will be made smooth, the storms be calmed, and all the little difficulties attendant upon this divine institution be alleviated. It is a delightful and instructive volume for the young, from the pen of a good pastor, who has compiled the work from a series of Lectures delivered to the youth of his congregation. It is handsomely published and abounds in simple truths well calculated to lead the mind to profitable reflection."—Daily Indiana State Journal.

THE GEM; a handsome and useful present, for all seasons, containing Selections of PROSE AND POETRY, of a moral, instructive and useful character, including a number of Stories and Tales. The work contains 324 octavo pages, illustrated with two colored plates, and ten fine engravings; printed on fine paper, bound in embossed cambric, gilt backs, Price, $1.50. Embossed, marble edge, $1.75. Gilt edge, sides and back, $2.50.

The contents of this excellent work are of such a character that, while they amuse, they serve for instruction in the Moral and Social Virtues. Where there is a taste for light reading, especially in young persons, it is better that such reading should be imbued with those qualities that tend to make the reader "a wiser and better man." Such a work we have now the pleasure of offering to the public, and to the heads of families in particular, whose care it is to assist their children and friends in their choice of reading.

J. A. & U. P. JAMES.

No. 167 Walnut street, between 4th and 5th, CINCINNATI, O.

"*The editor of any newspaper, to whom this is sent, inserting the above three times, and sending a copy of the paper containing the same, shall be entitled to receive a copy of each of the above named books, deliverable upon order, in Cincinnati, within one year from such insertion."

A. J. Green & Co.

A. J. GREEN.

W. C. JARBOE.

A. J. GREEN & CO.

GROCERS AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

One door East of Platt & Bosley,

SPRINGFIELD KY.

NEW FAMILY GROCERY.

A. J. GREEN & CO.

W. C. JARBOE.

Dec. 20th.

A. J. GREEN & CO.

Candies, Kisses,

Dates, Prunes,

Oranges, Lemons,

Apples, Figs,

received and for sale by A. J. GREEN & CO.

SUNDRIES—

30 Jars Pickles,

26 Jars Preserves,

Fresh Peaches,

Preserved Peaches and Quinces,

Pea Nuts, Cream Nuts,

Fibberts and almonds,

Oysters and Sardines,

Soda Biscuits, &c., &c. received and for sale by A. J. GREEN & CO.

40 BBLS MCKENSIUS'S Family FLOUR

received and for sale by A. J. GREEN & CO.

50 BUSH. HEMP SEED, for sale by A. J. GREEN & CO.

mar. 13. A. J. GREEN & CO.

A. J. GREEN & CO.

JOB PRINTING!!

Having opened a large and complete

JOB OFFICE, in LEBANON Marion County, Ky., I offer my services to the public generally. I am ready at all times to do up on the shortest notice, on the most reasonable terms, and in a manner to give entire satisfaction.

Pamphlets, Cards, Blanks,

Lables, Posters, &c., &c.

Should you want any thing done in my line, just bring it along.

W. W. JACK.

STOVES! STOVES!!

H. R. GREENE.

KEEPS CONSTANTLY on hand a full assortment of COOKING STOVES of the very latest and best patterns.

Would respectfully invite the public to call and examine his stock. Also; 6 and 10 plate, and Parlor

Stoves, of any pattern desired, can be furnished on the shortest notice.

TIN AND SHEET-IRON WARE,

Of every description, kept constantly on hand.

Also; Brass Stew-Kettles of the very best quality.

And other articles usually found in a Tin-works shop.

I am prepared to do any amount of Guttering or Roofing on the shortest notice, and at Louisville prices, and warrant my work to give entire satisfaction.

The highest prices given in cash or trade for old Copper and Pewter.

II. R. GREENE.

Springfield Ky., Oct. 4, 1851, 6.

STRADER'S HOTEL.

FORMERLY THE PEARL STREET HOUSE,

Pearl street, between Main and Market,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

By D. W. Strader.

THIS old established and well known hotel has been entirely refitted and refurnished

in the most comfortable style, and is now open for the accommodation of the public. It is located in the center of the business part of the city, being mid-way between the Mail Boat and general Packet Landing and the Post Office.

No pains or expense will be spared in order to render the guests of the house comfortable